LAY BIKE THEFTS TO BOYS

with Arrest of Three.

Youngsters May Be Arraigned Juvenile Court To-day to Answer Charges.

Thefts of bicycles which have baffled the police for weeks are believed to have been solved yesterday afternoon by De-members of a band of thieves. The lads taken into custody are Albert Senior, fourteen years old, of 614 Eighth street northeast; Roy Booth, fourteen and Joseph Sullivan, sixteen years old, cerely yours, of 636 Pickford place northeast. Each of the boys was released on $25 collateral,

According to the police, the lads have been stealing bicycles from office buildings and newspaper offices, taking the machines apart, and selling the parts. The police say the boys admitted stealing bicycles belonging to Roy Plant, of 1511 I street northwest, and James Young, of 861/2 Fenton street northeast. Air rifles and other toys were purchased with the money derived from the sale of the stolen bicycles, the police say, and it it believed the boys are responsible for

CARDINAL BLESSES NEW BUILDING

Dedication Services Held at Holy Cross Academy.

NOTED CHURCHMEN PRESENT

Prelate, in His Address to Pupils, Declares High Standard of Womanhood Is Due to Training Given. Dr. Edward A. Pace Speaks Along Same Lines-Musical Programme.

Cardinal Gibbons dedicated the new building of Holy Cross Academy, Dumbarton and Upton streets, yesterday afternoon. The corner stone was laid May 3, 1909, and the building has been ccupied by the pupils since the begin ning of the scholastic year, September 19. In his address to the pupils the car dinal said the present high standard of womanhood in this country was due to the training received by the young girls. He also assailed woman suffrage, when ne told the young girls that the woman who ruled the man who voted was bigger factor in the election than the nan who cast the vote.

The dedication services began at 2:3 'clock with a sermon by Rev. Dr. Edward A. Pace, of Catholic University, who spoke on the education of young omen and its effect upon the country Like the cardinal, he, too, said the present high standard of morality in the untry was directly due to the higher ucation of women, of which the Cath-ic Church has for years been the strongest advocate. Blessed with Holy Water. The sermon was followed by the dedication of the building by the cardinal, assisted by Father Buckey, of St. Matthew's Church. The procession formed in the temporary chapel in the west wing of the building, and, led by the cardinal, marched in solemn file through the building, blessing the halls with holy water.

After the procession had completed the rounds of the building, the audience as sembled in the main corridor, and a prowere light snows, and in the north Pacific States, where rains continued.

With the exception of snow furries Friday on pupils and the alumni. Miss Geline Macally Donald made the address of welcome to fair weather is indicated over the country during the next two days.

The panes were broken with shot from an air rifle.

TAFT'S ATTITUDE GRATIFYING

Dr. Llewellyn Jordan Favors Contributory Plan of Retirement.

Dr. Llewellyn Jordan, secretary of the regular, or orthodox, United States Civil Service Retirement Association, yesterday expressed gratification at the attitude assumed by President Taft in advocating an equitable contributory plan of retirement, as outlined in the so-called Giffett bill.

1106

A mass meeting has been arranged under the auspices of the Orthodox United States Civil Service Retirement Association and the Civil Service Council for next Monday evening, December 12, at the Public Library. Herbert D. Brown, author of the Gillett bill, which has just been indorsed by the President, will discuss various features of that bill.

Business and Committee from the Chamber of Commerce Will Carry Matter Before President-Germans Received at White House.

President Taft and his Cabinet this afternoon will thoroughly thrash out the question of government clerks working until 5 o'clock each day, instead of 4:30 clock. The Cabinet members held a short conference with the President at the White House yesterday afternoon, It was said yesterday that this matter probably would be definitely settled at to-day's meeting of the Cabinet. Washington merchants are opposed to such action, as they believe it would affect their business. The matter was discussed Wednesday afternoon by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. It was de-cided that a committee should be appointed to carry the matter before the President Taft received a delegation of the Plattdeutsche at the White House yesterday. The delegation, several hundred strong, brought a band and a few dozen standards and battle flags. They camped in front of the executive offices ntil Representative William Sulzer, of New York, could get the President's ear and bring him out. With the President and Mr. Sulzer in the center of the group, the society had its picture taken. Then three cheers were given for the President, three for Mr. Sulzer, and three for everybody.

IN MEMORIAM.

GORE—In sad and loving tribute to DOUGLASS MOORE, son of James A. K. and Ida B. Moore, who, one year ago this day, in the twenty-fourth year of his life departed to that borne whence no traveler returns, this memorial is inscribed. He was a dutiful son, a loyal friend a stanch adherent to the course he thought was right. And in that ultimate haven of the tortured spirit of mortal may his astral being find surcease from the pangs of despised love and the meed that a just providence should bestow upon the patient merit of one who has taken much from the unworthy. Let this be the benediction of those who loved him for his worth alone.
